What is Elder Concert?

Welcome to Elder Concert, a statewide multidisciplinary elder care conference. In the 16 years since Elder Concert began its annual program, hundreds of elder care professionals have been able to meet and learn together. Because they come from different elder care disciplines, each attendee rounds out his or her contacts and education. Elder Concert was born from the recognition that each elder care discipline has its own special instruments for bettering the lives of Florida's elderly and it is getting these instruments to play well together that creates great results.

Elder Concert brings together geriatric care managers, Elder Law attorneys, professional guardians, accountants, social service agencies, social workers, facility administrators, health care providers, government employees, financial advisors and other professionals important to the quality of life of Florida's seniors. Elder Concert provides first-come, first-serve registration and limits registrations to allow for truly interactive learning and networking. There are no "talking heads," but instead expertly facilitated and openly interactive sessions for dynamic and effective adult learning. In this way, each profession is learning from the other professions and meaningful relationships are solidified or formed.

The Academy of Florida Elder Law Attorneys (AFELA) is the founding organization of Elder Concert. From the beginning, we allied with other leading elder care organizations such as the Elder Law Section of The Florida Bar, Florida State Guardianship Association, Alzheimer's Community Care, Florida Geriatric Care Managers/Aging Life Care Association, Florida Department of Elder Affairs, The University of South Florida and The Louis and Anne Green Memory and Wellness Center of the Christine E. Lynn College of Nursing at Florida Atlantic University.

I created Elder Concert in 2000 because I was bothered that almost all of my continuing education was learning from other lawyers. While the lawyer meetings were great, I quickly realized that many elder care professionals also felt isolated in their learning. Elder Concert helps to bring elder care professionals together for the greater good. Whether you are new to Elder Concert or a longstanding sponsor or exhibitor, I thank you for supporting this programming. We could not do it without your financial support and I personally make sure that your organization gets the credit it is due. If you do not see the opportunity you want for your organization's involvement, call me and we will try to make it happen.

Scott Solkoff, Delray Beach

Testimonials:

"Elder Concert is one of the most unique educational experience I attend each year. A true knowledge share amongst professionals from many disciplines all committed to improving the service offerings we all deliver for our elderly population. We thoroughly enjoy this event each year"

Scott Greenberg, CAEd, President, ComForcare Home Care

"We enjoy coming to the Elder Concert because it gives us the opportunity to connect with attorneys we may not know, or with attorneys whom we don't get to see regularly. It is a wonderful forum to learn about the challenges facing the industry, and what our colleagues are doing to overcome obstacles."

Nick Barton, Executive Director, AGED, Inc. Attended for 5 years, from 2012 to 2016, and will attend the 2017 Elder Concert.

Testimonials:

"I have attended Elder Concert for many years. It is a great place to network with other professionals and engage in discussions about important issues that impact older adults and their families. If you have not attended, I encourage you to seriously consider joining us this year - you won't be disappointed!"

Jenni Frumer, PhD, LCSW, MEd, RG
Chief Executive Officer, Alpert Jewish Family & Children's Service /
Levine Jewish Residential & Family Service

"So many conferences are the same-talking heads and PowerPoints. The Elder Concert is unique. It is educational, interactive and offers great networking with so many professionals. I have been an attendee, a facilitator and a sponsor for Elder Concert for many years and always look forward to it!"

Michael W. Connors, Board Certified Elder Law Attorney
(Participant since 2000)
